'HUGGER' HUNT IN SMITH CASE; COLLEGE ADMITS GIRL ATTACKS

INTERESTING IS the financial history of Mrs. Anna M. Harkness, who died in 1926. Her husband, one of John D. Rockefeller's original partners, left her fifty millions. During the six years following her husband's death, Mrs. Harkness gave away more than thirty-one millions Nevertheless, she left an estate of $107,652,494, more than double what her husband left her.

She had $50,000,000 in Standard Oil shares, $20,000,000 in other stocks; in all $105,000,000 in securities and $2,000,000 of real estate. She left $83,000,000 to her son, and left just $711 worth of clothes.

The national government will get $18,000,000 of Mrs. Harkness' money in inheritance tax.

William Fox has bought 250 more theatres, seating 350,000, for $100,000,000.

Twenty-five years ago Fox got into the theatre business because his employer refused to raise his $17-a-week salary. Fox had just married. The employer said: "Not only I can't raise your $17 a week, but you are getting $2 too much. I am going to pay what you are worth, $15."

Fox had saved $500 on $17 a week, got control of a tiny moving picture theatre, that could take in $7.30 when packed. Now he has 300 theatres.

Always save something. If you have brains it will increase. If not, saving will keep you out of the poorhouse and the Potters Field anyhow.

A learned New York legislator says married women ought not to work, and if their husbands earn as much as $2,000 a year, the woman's earnings should be taxed 20 per cent.

Under old laws a husband could take what his wife earned; even now in England he controls the children that she produces.

For the State to rebuke her industry by taxing her earnings 20 per cent. would be something new.

"Remarkable Recovery in Stocks," say Wall Street reports, and "hope deferred maketh the heart sick," says the long suffering Bear.

Real buyers, speculators, and the out-and-out gamblers, forgot overnight all about Chicago's Federal Reserve Bank raising the re-discount rate.

After all, money at 4 per cent. is "cheap money," when you think you can win.

It is sad for the bears. It will be worse in the long run for those that start gambling. Th-re

QUESTION GIRL AS NEW ANGLE IS REVEALED $500,000 LOOT PROBE

A liquor angle, involving an India Wharf warehouse, came to light today in the investigation of the $500,000 coup from the Eastern Steamship Lines, Inc., when police announced that one of the defendants now under arrest stored alcohol and established a distribution centre at the old wharf.

There, they said, George Gordon first met the fence of the family several years ago, one of them afterwards becoming his wife.

Significance was attached to the announcement of the liquor disclosures coming with the closeting of Miss Bertha Hauck, India Wharf bookkeeper, with Assistant District Attorney Frederick G. Doyle for all-day questioning. Miss Hauck works for her father, who leases a warehouse on the wharf.

Police Inspectors Frank Haggerty and John McCarthy pried into the liquor activities and resurrected a $30,000 seizure by Federal agents more than two years ago when Deputy Collector of Customs Thomas J. Flanagan and Special Treasury Agent Owen P. McKenna seized a truck and alcohol as it was backed to the warehouse. Shots were fired at the time but the driver escaped.

3 STRANGERS HUNTED SLAIN MAN, SAYS GIRL

Search for three men began today in the investigation into the murder of David Goodman, apartment house owner, in one of his own Fenway blocks.

The hunt began following a quiz of Miss Anna Matthews, one of Goodman's secretaries, who sat waiting for him upstairs in the Hemenway street apartment house while the wealthy owner was being slain in the basement.

Miss Matthews told Assistant District Attorney William McDonnell that an unidentified man called three times at the apartment block while she waited for Goodman. The man said he was looking for work.

After pacing up and down the office on the third visit, this stranger suddenly declared he did not care to wait for Goodman any longer—and hurried out the front way.

Another of the men sought for questioning called several times on the murder night at Goodman's Huntington avenue offices and asked for him.

PHONE GIRL WARNS OF BIG SOMERVILLE FIRE

An alert girl telephone operator in the Somerville exchange today was the means by which Somerville firemen were called to a serious fire in Magoun square, Somerville.

Two alarms brought virtually the entire Somerville department and one piece of Medford apparatus to Nos. 526, 528, 530 and 532 Medford street, where the basements under four stores were enveloped with flames which were already spreading to the floors above.

The blaze apparently started in the basement of the C. P. McClure Drug Company at No. 528 Medford street, where flames melted the fuse box, sending alarms flashing to the exchange switchboard. When the operator failed to get any response after plugging in repeatedly, she called Lieutenant Robert T. Blair of the Somerville police. Even as he was calling firemen an alarm came in from box 337. This was rung by a milkman.

No. 526 was occupied by the Magoun Square Hardware Company, No. 530 by the Israel Aarthian Smoke Shop and No. 532 by the Dan Simoni fruit store.

The fire gave the firemen a stiff fight before it was brought under control. The damage to the buildings and four stores is estimated at $30,000.

BOOST PAY OF PHONE EMPLOYES

"High rating" men and women employed by the New England Telephone & Telegraph Company throughout the entire district, including Boston, will receive wage increases of from $1 to $3, effective Sunday, it was announced today.

The increases are in the plant and traffic departments, even in the former and women in the latter, according to an official of the telephone company.

Experience of ten years or more with the company is the basis on which the graduation is made. And all receiving increases have attained the company's official "high rating."

The wage boosts affect approximately 15 per cent. of employes in the two departments.

Committee Backs 'Gold Star' Tour

Washington, Jan. 27 (I.N.S.)—The House Military Affairs Committee, after five minutes' deliberation, today voted to recommend passage of the Butler bill, providing for a tour of the battlefields of France by "Gold Star" mothers, at the expense of the government.

Under the terms of the bill any mother, or unmarried widow, of an American killed overseas in the World War would be entitled to make the pilgrimage. Witnesses estimated 7,500 women would be eligible and the cost would total $3,000,000.

LINDY HOPS IN 'DEATH PEAK FOG'

Cartagena, Colombia, Jan. 27.—C. A. Lindbergh left here for Bogota, 400 miles away, at 8:50 a. m., Eastern standard time.

He took advantage of his few hours of leisure to go "joy riding," taking three Colombian officials up with him. He did not use the Spirit of St. Louis, but made the flight in a seaplane belonging to the Andean Corporation.

The trail of the Lone Eagle today led inland from the sea over the mountains of Colombia, the mountains and the fogs which rise around their rugged peaks making the journey doubly hazardous.

Four hundred miles of flying lay before Lindbergh before he reached the secluded mountain capital. He was reported later over San Benito.

Bezota, nestled in the shadows of Monserrate and Guadalupe, has never entertained a renowned flier, for it had been feared that to invite any one to fly through the banks of clouds which encircle the mountains might be inviting disaster to court disaster.

PRESENCE OF HUGGER ON SMITH CAMPUS IS ADMITTED BY COLLEGE

By BERT FORD.

Northampton, Jan. 27.—The theory of foul play as the solution of the disappearance of Frances St. John Smith was the centre of investigation here today as Smith College made official announcement that a number of girls had been accosted on the campus by a "hugger."

Reports and rumors of the past two weeks became available faste finally when Franklin King, superintendent of the college, declared it true that students have been accosted in the dormitories at night and that extra watchmen are constantly on guard as a result.

It was revealed that a little more than two months ago, after numerous complaints by students had reached the college office, a man was caught on the campus in an attempted attack upon a girl. College authorities failed to prosecute the man.

Two weeks ago today, in the honor-student atmosphere of Dewey House, Frances Smith ate breakfast—and vanished. She arose from the breakfast table and seemingly disappeared into thin air as if possessing some magic evanescent quality.

HICKMAN FIGHTING HIS COUNSEL, WILL TESTIFY

Los Angeles, Jan. 27.—William Edward Hickman, who has confessed to kidnaping and killing the twelve-year-old girl, announced his own plan, which his counsel, Jerome Walsh and Richard Cantillon, said would seriously hamper the defense.

"We do not want Hickman to take the witness stand in view of his insanity defense and we have told him so," said Walsh. "If he persists in his plan of 'not guilty by reason of insanity,' the youth is determined to talk, we cannot stop.

IBANEZ REPORTED DEAD IN FRANCE

Madrid, Jan. 27 (A.P.).—The newspaper Heraldo received a dispatch from Mentone, France, stating that Vicente Blasco Ibanez was dead at his villa there.

Mentone, France, Jan. 27 (A.P.).—Vicente Blasco Ibanez, noted Spanish author, has been suffering from a grave complication of bronchopneumonia and diabetes.

Vicente Blasco Ibanez has been active in two fields, politics and literature. His most widely known works are "Blood and Sand" in 1924, "The Four Horsemen of the Apocalypse," 1918, and "Mare Nostrum," All three of these books were published in translation in the United States and also were made into motion pictures.

Politically Ibanez is a Republican. His opposition to the present regime in Spain, particularly direct criticism of King Alfonso, caused him to go into virtual exile in France. Ibanez was born at Valencia Jan. 29, 1867.

GIRL SAYS STRANGER SOUGHT GOODMAN ON DEATH NIGHT

visitor. Miss Matthews said she placed no significance to the visits of the latter man, however. The girl secretary also revealed the mystery of the apartment house telephone that would not work on outgoing calls.

This was because the telephone was filled with nickels.

Five persons were questioned altogether today, and it was during the quizzings that a hunt first began for a man employed by Goodman at one time.

Goodman, it was declared to Attorney McDonnell, frequently expressed fear of his man, explaining that he was afraid the man would "get even" for his discharge.

Those questioned today by Assistant District Attorney McDonnell and Inspector James Dennessey, homicide expert, included Ira Joy, janitor at the apartment, and the following men who had been employed as janitors:

John S. Lind and Joseph Conlon, both now employed in Queensboro street; William Phibbin, now employed on Audubon road, who told the police Goodman had a bad heart, and a man named Harvey, who worked for Goodman a number of years.

TO QUESTION HER.

One of the most important stories is expected to be told by Miss C. F. Dugan of Savin street, Roxbury, who will be questioned tomorrow, it is understood. Miss Dugan was employed by Goodman up to last August and is said to have made out the discharges of Harvey, Lind and the much-sought other employe.

The authorities said today there was no foundation for the statement that a man and woman were in the basement with Goodman when he met his death. Inspector Dennessey's fact that Miss Matthews made a search through the apartment house prior to that which resulted in the discovery of the body.

QUESTION OF MONEY.

In announcing that the case was plainly murder, McDonnell admitted that the motive still was baffling investigators, though most of those working on the case believe that when all the facts come to light jealousy will be found back of the slaying.

Police are convinced that Goodman was waylaid in the cellar and attacked.

One important point the police would like to clear up, and that is just how much money Goodman was carrying on his person when he was killed. The sum of $700 was found in his pockets at the City Hospital morgue, but police are wondering whether there had not been more and that it was taken by his assailant.

Inspectors are checking up on Goodman's movements for the past several weeks in the hope that some tangible one may be obtained that will further involve the two persons they suspect were responsible for his death.

ENACT "DEATH" SCENE.

In the presence of McDonnell police inspectors, using Janitor Joy in the role of the dead Goodman, enacted the death scene in the basement of No. 315 Hemenway street, as they reconstruct it.

CANANDAIGUA VOTES ON SUNDAY MOVIES

Canandaigua, N. Y., Jan. 27 (A. P.)—This community is deciding today by public referendum whether it can go to the movies on Sunday. The polls will open at noon and close at 9 tonight. A committee of pastors of the several churches has organized the opposition.

YOUNG GASTON WEDS ACTRESS; AMES SINGER

Boston society and Harvard collegiate circles had two surprise marriages to talk over today—with William Gaston, son of the late banker, and Frederick Lothrop Ames, wealthy aviation enthusiast, as the bridegrooms.

Gaston, once married, but divorced, went from New York to West Chester, a few miles along the Boston road, with the beautiful and talented actress, Rosamond Pinchot, niece of former Governor Gifford Pinchot of Pennsylvania.

They were married in the presence of Gaston's mother, Mrs. May Gaston, and the actress' father, Amos Pinchot.

Young Ames, who has been on a flying tour of the country, was married to Miss Maurice Moerite, singer and entertainer in a night club at Nogales, a border town that sits on the line between Arizona and Mexico.

QUIT SOCIETY FOR STAGE.

The new Mrs. Ames is a little French girl, while her flying husband is one of the prominent Ames family of the Hub. His mother lives in Commonwealth avenue, and said she had been informed by her son over the telephone of his intent to marry the night club entertainer.

She was reported unable to see reporters today on account of a bad attack of grip. The maid expressed her surprise in no uncertain terms.

"Ills of all people to take a bride. Why he was married to his sports, that's all. He never even had a girl."

Gaston's bride deserted the debutante ranks several years ago to go on the stage. She is now appearing with the Reinhardt Players at the Century Theatre in New York.

Like Ames, his friend, Gaston is a flier. During the war he was a naval aviation pilot.

He was graduated from Harvard with the class of 1919 and secured a law degree in 1923.

IN NIGHT CLUB VENTURE.

For nearly a year he was an assistant district attorney for Suffolk county under District Attorney Thomas C. O'Brien.

He attracted more prominence to himself, however, through his part ownership in the unsuccessful Argonaut Club than in any other of his experiences.

Through his connection with the night club he became engaged in a controversy with ex-Mayor Curley and city officials, but the club was allowed to proceed. It was closed voluntarily after a few months' tenure.

Night Life Comes High When Tax Man Arrives

Washington, Jan. 27 (I.N.S.)—Broadway, the centre of America's theatrical and night club life, was chiefly responsible for $8,085,060 in amusement taxes paid the Federal government by New York last year, the internal revenue bureau announced today.

Total taxes on theatres, night clubs, prize fights, the world series and other entertainment in 1927 amounted to $17,835,000. Illinois ranked second in volume of taxes, Pennsylvania third and California fourth.

The Dempsey-Tunney fight at Chicago and the Pittsburgh-New York world series were the biggest events of the year from a tax standpoint.

BROOKLYN MAN'S HOME IS WRECKED BY BOMB

New York, Jan. 27 (A.P.)—Explosion of a bomb demolished the front of a Brooklyn residence early today. The house was occupied by the family of Dominick Ferrantino, none of whom was injured. Ferrantino is in the paper stock business. Police could learn of no cause for the bombing.

'OTHER WOMAN' NAMED BY WIFE IN SUIT

Mrs. Laura H. Davis of Pearl street, Cambridge, mother of Ora Davis Keator, former beauty contest winner, and two other daughters, today brought suit in Middlesex Probate Court against George G. Davis, Cambridge and Boston furniture mover, for separate support.

Mrs. Davis, who has been married nearly 25 years, named Mrs. Stella M. Smith, 50, of East Springfield street, Boston, and an unidentified woman said to live in Cambridge.

Mrs. Davis took the stand as the first witness and testified that she became suspicious of Mrs. Smith when the latter telephoned her husband at least once a month. She said there calls were received over a period of three years. She said her daughters, Ora, Edith, and Frances, saw Mrs. Smith in their father's office in Massachusetts avenue, and the daughters told her stories about Davis and the other woman.

The witness told of visiting her husband's Alston office on Commonwealth avenue, where she found Mrs. Smith who told her Davis paid her $2 a week to take care of the office. Mrs. Davis said she accused the other woman of having run after her husband for three years. She said her husband left her the night before Labor Day after she had questioned him regarding the stories her daughters told her. Before leaving she said he rushed at her with fists clenched and threatened to knock her down.

Theodore J. Williams of Boston avenue, Medford, testified he had worked for Davis off and on for six years. He told of driving Davis and a woman to the rear of the Mt. Auburn Cemetery, where they left the car and were gone for an hour. He said Mrs. Smith frequently visited the Cambridge office.

Bakeshop Mouser Is Called Bad Health Risk

Cats kept in bakeries and lunch rooms are a menace to public health, and owners should not be permitted to ha e them, declared Charles O. Swanson of Fitchburg, one of the speakers today at a conference of the Massachusetts Consumers' League at the Twentieth Century Club.

"Take shops and restaurants should be so constructed that it would be impossible for mice to gain entrance. Some hold to the opinion that cats do not carry germs, but in my opinion a minority believe otherwise, and if there is doubt the public is entitled to the benefit of it," he said.

Public interest in high standards in restaurants and bakeries was the subject discussed at the morning session of the first general food conference of the league.

Speakers at the afternoon session included Dr. George H. Bigelow, State Commissioner of Public Health, and Dr. F. H. Millowney of the city health department.

him, but such a move would seriously injure defense plans."

Defense attorneys indicated today nine of the twelve jurors tentatively selected to try Hickman would be swept from the box by peremptory challenges.

Of the four women and eight men seated in the jury box, eleven had been tentatively passed by both sides.

"It seems remarkable that we should be able to find so rapidly a jury which had formed no prejudiced opinions after reading newspaper accounts and listening on the radio to details of this crime," Chief Defense Attorney Jerome Walsh declared.

POLICE WORK ON THEORY THAT SMITH GIRL WAS SLAIN

word; leaving behind no trace—she dropped from sight and for 14 days the most intensive missing-person hunt ever conducted in the country has failed to produce a clue to her whereabouts.

"It is true," announced Superintendent King, "that girls have been accosted nights during the past week or two by a man suspected to be the same one caught doing the same thing before. He has not succeeded in laying his hands upon the girls so far as I know. He has made remarks to them and acted in a way that caused me to put on extra night watchmen."

HUNT FOR PROWLER

If this "Jack-the-Hugger"—so-called by the students themselves—is captured, State authorities are convinced some light will be cast upon the strange mystery of Frances St. John Smith, and possibly upon the unsolved disappearance more than two years ago of Alice Corbett, another student.

The prowler chased two students as recently as Wednesday night, but invariably annoys only those girls whom he encounters crossing the campus alone. Various report that he accompanies insulting remarks with a grunting sound as he suddenly appears from behind a tree or the corner of a building.

So far as could be learned today he has loitered chiefly in the vicinity of Tyler House where fifty students are domiciled. Undoubtedly his reason for selecting this dormitory is its remote location in the extreme rear of the campus, in close proximity to Paradise Pond.

As a result of his activities of late a general warning has been issued to all students to go out in twos or greater numbers and to avoid walking alone after dark.

Also it was learned today that since the disappearance of Miss Smith on January 13, every student has been required to check in and out and this new rule is rigidly enforced.

"We girls are punching time clocks now," said one of the students, "or, at least, that's what it amounts to."

Girls have discussed the night prowler at table and news of his operations has spread throughout the college settlement. Some of the Tyler House girls have gone so far as to claim the offender is an employe. He is described as being 25 years of age, slight and stooped, with dark clothing and a slouch hat.

A young man who drove one of the students home from the theatre was surprised to have her request him to turn the car into the rear of Tyler house.

"What for?" asked her escort. "Because a young fellow who has been hanging around has become so bold that he has chased girls right up to the dormitory steps," she said.

"If you stop the car in front as customary, I'll have to walk too far alone. One of the girls came in breathless the other night and almost fainted. It's got to be a real menace for some of us."

Girls have complained of seeing a man's face peering through windows.

PEERS IN WINDOWS

A proprietor of a local tea room has likewise complained to the police of the presence of a prowler about his shop, accosting patrons and peering in the windows.

It became known today for the first time that the missing student was well acquainted with Madam Bianchi, the former Mertha Gilbert Dickinson, New York author, who maintains a Summer place in Amherst. Madam Bianchi is a niece of Emily Dickinson, the famous poet, whose memoirs she recently wrote.

The Smith and Bianchi families exchanged visits and Frances was a frequent visitor at Madam Bianchi's Amherst house. The writer herself left this vicinity last November, and is understood now to be in Europe. On the belief that Frances possibly became aware of her plans and secretly planned to see one on a trip abroad with the intention of surprising Madam Bianchi, police officials will seek to locate the latter today.

Madam Bianchi entertained lavishly, and police believe it possible that Frances became acquainted with a person not known to her parents at one of these gatherings.

A piece conducted by two women was one of the first places visited by investigators seeking the girl, it became known. The women provide a spot where college girls may week-end and enjoy sports under close supervision, and Frances, while she was at Milton Academy and since

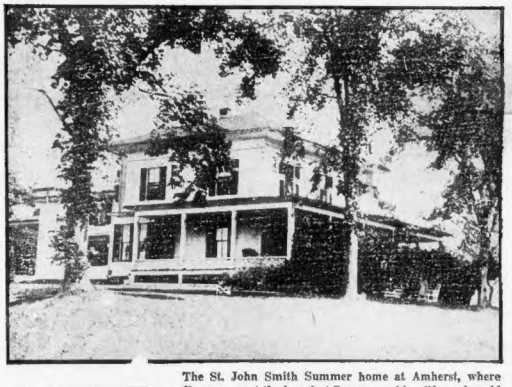
"If Frances sees these pictures they may influence her to return home," said Mrs. Smith in requesting the Hearst papers to publish these pictures taken in her childhood. This picture shows her as a young girl, sunny and carefree. "She cannot remain away long," said Mrs. Smith.

This picture shows Frances playing with her pet dog Jinksey at their Summer home in Amherst, and Jinksey certainly knew when he was having a good time. How he loved a good romp!



The St. John Smith Summer home at Amherst, where Frances spent the happiest Summers of her life, and could give play to her longing to get into the great open spaces and develop in the pure air.

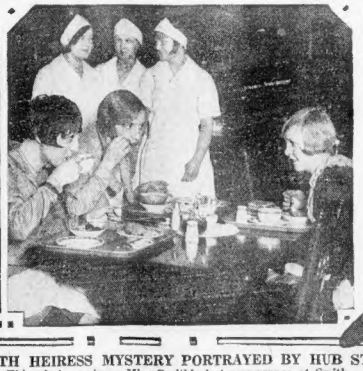
Frances was only a tiny tot when this picture was taken, but she felt very "comfy" sitting in the crotch of the big tree in her Summer home.

Frances was growing up fast and here she was at the age of 12 playing croquet. These pictures of her childhood are printed here for the first time.

Then in the Winter came the glorious days of skating, all too few, and here is Frances at the age of 10 with a nice toque to keep her ears warm.

Sylvia Carol, principal in the Greenwich Village Follies at the Shubert Theatre, shows Frances Smith blue and lonely.

Home for the Christmas holidays, her wealthy father induced her to consent to see a specialist in the hope of dispelling her depressed spirits. Miss Carol is shown here as Frances Smith.



This photo portrays Miss Smith's last appearance at Smith College on Friday, January 13, at breakfast. Three maids are sure she breakfasted then with two other girls. Sylvia Carol as Frances, Emma Kligge as Joy Kimball, and Adelaide Lorraine as the other student. All are members of the Greenwich Village Follies. The pictorial story will be continued tomorrow.

PICTORIAL HISTORY OF SMITH HEIRESS MYSTERY PORTRAYED BY HUB STAGE STAR

JUNIORS OF S. P. C. C. HAPPY IN WORK, SAYS BETTY ALDEN

Financial Success of Recent Lecture by Lowell Thomas Proves Most Encouraging

UP AT NO. 43 MOUNT VERNON street (stronghold of the Junior Division, S. P. C. C.), paens of joy are resounding. And with good reason. Certainly philanthropical agreations are permitted to wax enthusiastic when they put over a benefit to the tune of several thousand dollars. The Lowell Thomas lecture, recently given by the Division, brought nearly six thousand dollars into its strong box. So rejoicing is great, and great is the good that will be done destitute and neglected children, whom the Division takes under its all-protecting wing.

NOTWITHSTANDING SUCH A golden harvest, "benefits" of various sorts for the Division go marching valiantly on. Now there is bridge, this evening, at the Appleton street home of Mrs. Harold W. Read, in Cambridge. Closing must be had for the Division's charges. And so funds must be raised, and what pleasanter or more profitable way, so argues Mrs. Read and her assistants, than an evening at bridge to serve the purpose. Mrs. Max Whiting, Mrs Parker Marean, Mrs. Arthur Jackson, Cantabrigians, and Mrs. Charles T. Russell of Boston are able lieutenants under Mrs. Read's leadership.

TO BE A JUNIOR LEAGUER CARRIES CERTAIN PRIVILEGES not the least of which is "transfer" membership. Now that Miss Nancy Morison is devoting her Winter to business and artistic pursuits in Gotham she takes advantage of the transfer privilege and becomes to all intents and purposes a member of the Junior League in New York. There a well-appointed club house is at her disposal, for lunching and tea-ing, dining and entertaining out of town friends. Someday Boston's Junior League, a most up and coming unit, may install itself in just such comfortable, spacious quarters. Many members have a decided urge in that direction.

IN PURSUIT OF AN ALLIED BUSINESS-ARTS CAREER, THE versatile Miss Morison is letting no grass grow under her high-heeled shoes. Selling lamps and shades in one of Gotham's noted shops comes easily to such an accomplished young woman, just as does intensive study of interior decoration and design with competent masters. Now that the young people are so scattered—Miss Nancy Morison in New York and Miss Elizabeth in Bryn Mawr preparing for college, the Horace Morisons, senior, are at their Brookline apartment, and do not plan to occupy their Louisburg square home until another Winter, when debutante affairs for a younger daughter get under way.

TAKING SMALL SISTER ON OUTING

Little Miss Harriet McKenna smiles placidly on life when guarded in her carriage by brother Philip. They are children of William J. McKenna of Beacon street.

LATE WINTER IN BERMUDA, AND A SUMMER IN ENGLAND and on the Continent, is the pleasant program confronting Dr. Sarah Ellen Palmer of Beacon street. For a month or six weeks, as guest of Mrs. Adolf Albert Clemens of Washington, Dr. Palmer will be at the Princess Hotel in Hamilton. She sails for the Summer Isles on February 11. Then after a brief interval back in town, she takes ship again for a Summer abroad. Cornwall is to be visited, in leisurely fashion, gathering lecture material. Then London, for a visit with the Honorable John Robertson, M. P., and Mrs. Robertson.

AFTER LONDON, DR. PALMER GOES TO PARIS, THEN through France and into Spain, land of the Dons and clicking heels; to return this way in September. No such previously formulated travel plans for Miss Peggy Bent, daughter of Newell Bent, however. Miss Bent decided on short order to join friends for a Mediterranean cruise. No sooner thought of than done, and so this popular young girl is now en route to Northern Africa, society's new playground in the sun. Mrs. Robert DeCourcey Ward and Miss Emma Ward are Miss Bent's traveling companions on this jaunt, that is to last several weeks, at least.

RETURN VISITS OF CELEBRITIES, musical, dramatic or literary, brighten the accepted order of February's calendar. Miss Cornelia Otis-Skinner, she of the raven locks and exquisite poise, daughter to the famous stage star and herself not unknown to fame, is one lovely luminary due for a second appearance here. And, of course, the ubiquitous "benefit" is the reason. Another bright particular star coming to town again is the Signora Lucilla de Vescovi, singer of Italy's songs and a stage ornament of first magnitude.

COMPATRIOTS OF SIGNORA DE VESCOVI'S came to town for her concert. They were the Prince and Princess Georges Maschabelli, renewing friendships made in Italy. They, and likewise Mr. and Mrs. Malcolm D. Whitman (the Signora in private life is Mrs. Whitman), were guest at the Hotel Ritz-Carlton during their Boston stay. Now the Prince and Princess have gone back to their New York residence.

SOCIAL AMENITIES FOR VISITING savants include Mrs. Robert Cushman's luncheon today for Professor James Wilford Garner, at her Mount Vernon street home. Professor Garner's Boston visit has to do with the Radcliffe School of Politics, he being rated an authority on International law. Professor Thomas Reed Powell, Mrs. Powell, Odin Roberts and C. Frederick Wood are luncheon guests. Mrs. A. Lawrence Lowell, earlier in the week entertained at tea for the political group that has scant liking for social sauce unless partaken of amid life's loftier aspects.

VOCAL QUARTET FROM RUSSIA TRIUMPHS

By MOSES SMITH.

The Kedroff Quartet, a group of four male voices, giving a concert in Symphony Hall for the benefit of the Committee for the Education of Russian Youth in Exile proved as its advance notices indicated, that it is the best male quartet to visit these shores in our generation When one has said this, however one has not quite done the Kedroffs justice, for the number of really good quartets on the American concert stages has not been large.

While the listener might take exception to the label "a miracle of vocal art" which Chaliapin applied to this Russian ensemble there is no questioning the excellence of the voices, their beautifully blended equality, the remarkable precision of attacks, phrasing and diction, and the expressiveness of the group as a whole. Even more noteworthy was their gift of characterization, a gift uncommon in a soloist, and all the more so in a combination.

So skilful and graphic was their ability to depict a mood or situation that the listener, understanding no Russian (in which all the songs were rendered) and often with the help of a bare program note, was able to follow the progress of the text simply by means of the vocal inflections and facial movements of the singers. Enunciation, moreover, was so distinct, that one could clearly perceive the syllables even though in themselves they were meaningless.

The intonation of the Kedroffs was not always accurate, but to us this does not seem a serious fault in a Russian. What caused greater disappointment was the monotonous character of the programm, which was relieved only by the contrasting extra numbers.

Democrats Will Sit Under Fireproof and Heatproof Roof

New York, Jan. 27 (A.P.).—The immense auditorium which will house the Democratic National Convention at Houston, Tex., next June will be especially designed to take a full advantage of the cool breezes sweeping in from the Gulf of Mexico.

A permanent fireproof roof, insulated against heat, and a mechanical ventilation system will guarantee the comfort of the delegates.

Several city blocks are to be razed and cleared for the auditorium which will be of stadium type, with sloping floors. His capacity will be 25,000 persons.

It will include a branch postoffice, four dining rooms and special accommodations for officers of the national committee and the press. Especial consideration has been given facilities for radio broadcasting and the making of motion pictures.

MRS. CHARLES M'CALLUM INJURED IN AUTO CRASH

New York, Jan. 27 (I.N.S.).—Caught in the vortex of a Fifth avenue traffic mixup, Mrs. Hortense McCallum, wife of Charles McCallum, vice-president of the Liggett Drug Company, was seriously injured today when her car crashed into a traffic tower.

Examination revealed that she had a probable fracture of the skull, a broken jaw and thatboth legs were fractured. The crash occurred when she swerved her car to avoid hitting a truck.

TWOHIG LOSES PUBLIC UTILITY BILL FIGHT

On a rising vote of 37 to 67 the House today killed the Twohig bill transferring to the Legislature regulatory power over public service corporations, now vested in jhe department of public utilities.

A request for a rollcall was then defeated by one vote.

In his fight for his bill, Representative James J. Twohig of South Boston, referred to the "defiant attitude" of the Worcester Electric Light Company in refusing to lower its rates, ordered by the utilities commission, and appealing from the decision to the United States Supreme Court.

"The threat of the utilities commission to retaliate on he Worcester company by permitting competition in the field," Twohig charged, "was weak and vacillating."

Representative Clarence Luitwieler of Newton opposed the bill and praised the commission for its honesty. Representative Edward J. Kelley of Worcester reminded Luitwieler that the late Senator Rice, also from Newton, had characterized the commission as a body "owned sole and body by the public utility corporations."

ESSEX FAIR HEAD LAUDS VALUE OF NEWSPAPER 'ADS'

Greenfield, Jan. 27.—At the annual meeting of the Massachusetts Fairs Association here I. H. Sawyer, president of the Essex Agricultural Society, sponsors of the Topsfield Fair, spoke on "Advertising and Sentiment in Business," and laid particular stress upon the potent influence of newspaper advertising.

LONDON PRESS SEES COLLAPSE OF ZIONISM

London, Jan. 27 (A.P.).—The Daily Express, which is avowedly hostile to British commitments to Zionism in Palestine, featured today what it represented to be the complete failure of the Zionist movement.

The paper said "what may be the final scene in the tragedy of a still-born nation are now being enacted."

Among other things the paper said: "Perhaps the darkest fact of the situation is the virtual cessation of financial relief from Zionist sources outside of Palestine. The main stream from the United States appears to have dried up and it is reported that the failures of remittances from that quarter has been so complete that the Zionist organization found itself compelled at the end of November to cease the weekly doles which it had been paying to the unemployed.

NAVY TO NEED 20,000 MEN FOR NEW CRUISERS

Washington, Jan. 27 (A.P.).—An increase of about 20,000 enlisted men and 825 officers will be necessary to man the eight cruisers under construction and the 25 cruisers contemplated under the administration's $740,000,000 warship construction program, Rear-Admiral J. D. Buerel, chief naval construction officer, testified today before the House naval committee.

The witness declared the eight cruisers under construction would cost approximately $16,500,000 each. Proposed cruisers will carry an many eighteen guns as possible without disregarding a proper balance, he continued, and the exact balance as to speed, gun power and protection is the subject of consideration now.

MENJOU HARD AT WORK FOR HONEYMOON

By LOUELLA O. PARSONS.

Los Angeles, Jan. 27.—What with all this chatter that I heard about Adolphe Menjou leaving Paramount, I must have been one of those bits of gossip that start at luncheon and end at dinner. Anyway Paramount doesn't seem to know it if he is leaving. They are going right ahead lining up new pictures for him.

As soon as he finishes "Captain Farrior" he begins "Super of the County," based on the theatrical novel by Alfred Savior. Hobart Henley is already signed up to direct him.

There is a reason for the popular Menjou's eagerness to get a few pictures ahead. In June he will marry Kathryn Carver, or rather Kathryn Hill if you prefer, and of course he wants a honeymoon. He plans to have his pictures so arranged that he and his bride can take a little trip. Well, even a movie actor needs a little vacation once in a while.

Edna Murphy, having returned from her honeymoon, put her house in order and having been the wife of a director for a month, has decided to make a picture. You can not blame her when you consider that she is again to play opposite Fred Thomson.

Her present contract starts January 30 this year, and calls for "The Sunset Legion." This is the popular Western hero's third Paramount picture and it deals with the mining days of the West at about the period of 1880. Lloyd Ingram and Alfred Werker have been engaged to direct.

P. S.—Just noticed that I didn't mention the name of Miss Murphy's husband. I don't really think it's necessary—everyone knows she married Mervyn Le Roy.

The one thing that every actress mother tries to do is to persuade her daughter that the stage or screen is no place for her. Clara Fitzgerald has a winsome daughter, 17, who just arrived from England, where she has been in school. Clara, Sr., she of the famous wink, did everything in her power to prevent Cleary, Jr., from going into the movies, but when a job is offered to a young girl, what can she do? Besides, every girl longs to try her face before the camera.

Herbert Brown gave Cleary, Jr., a bit in "Laugh, Clown, Laugh!", Lon Chaney's most recent picture, and they tell me she photographed like a million. After the girl finally told her mother, she changed her tactics and went to take a look at the rushes. They say she is as proud as a peacock over her daughter's work.

Put down to rumors that has come and gone and been buried, Ramon Navarro's desertion of the screen for the monastery. Irving Thalberg has signed Navarro on a new starring contract to appear in Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer pictures.

COUPLE DEMAND CYANIDE, GET PLAIN SALT

Brockton, Jan. 27.—A young couple, the man sporting a black eye, cut chin and sawed-off shotgun, held up Joseph F. Giardino today in the office of the Jada Manufacturing Company, of which he is president, in East Nilsson street, and demanded cyanide of potassium.

Giardino believes the couple were contemplating suicide, but, being a quick thinker, he wrapped up a generous portion of common salt and handed it to the gentleman with the blemished countenance.

The man and forecasted girl did not stop even to express thanks, but hastened from the office after the former had reached the shotgun beneath his coat.

Giardino immediately telephoned the police, informing them of the incident and telling of his belief that the couple were bent on suicide.

The president of the company—it specializes in nickel-plating—said the girl, whose co-. Giardino believed to have been of muskrat fur, entered the office first and asked if he had any cyanide.

"Yes," Giardino replied.

"I would like to buy some," the girl said, and her voice shook nervously.

"Why, I can't sell you cyanide," he demurred. "What do you want it for?"

Then the man, who apparently had been listening, stepped quickly into the room and pulled out the shotgun.

"Give her the stuff," he ordered, pointing the shotgun at Giardino.

Giardino entertained for a brief instant, he said, a thought to lunge for the gun. Then he thought of the salt on a back room shelf.

"Sure, I'll get it," Giardino said, and went into the room, where he hastily poured the salt and returned with it. Then the couple hastened away.

Giardino described the man as about 30 years old, of light complexion—excepting the eye—torn chin and a beard that had not felt a razor for days. He was wearing an overcoat, whose front was stained as if blood had dripped down.

The girl was about 22 years old, short and plump, good looking and well dressed.

MAJOR HAMLIN QUALIFIES FOR HUB "DRY" POST

Washington, Jan. 27.—Major Philip Hamlin, assistant to Captain George A. Parker, prohibition administrator for enforcement in New England, today qualified for his position under the civil service, together with George F. A. Mulcahy of Boston and Arthur K. Wicks of Belmont. Captain Parker immediately asked the appointment of Major Hamlin.

SILENT FOR 30 YEARS, HE DIES WITHOUT SPEAKING

Warsaw, Poland, Jan. 27 (I.N.S.)—M. Frommer, a Polish Jew, is dead here after a self-imposed silence of thirty years. During a quarrel with his wife thirty years ago, Frommer expressed a wish that she be burned to death. Two days later his home was burned and his wife perished in the flames. Almost insane from remorse, Frommer took an oath never to speak again, and kept it to his death.

SKATING, BUT NO SKIING IN HUB YET

Week-enders who expect skating, skiing, coasting and such sports over the line between this seven-day semester and that to come, will get only the skating, according to the Weather Man today.

There isn't a flake in sight, but chilly breezes are on their way from beyond the Mississippi as replacements for the chilly breezes of yesterday and today.

Sometime next week it may be warmer, but there was no immediate indication of balm as the Weather Man wrinkled his brow above his maps and charts today.

Today in the Hub was eight degrees colder than yesterday, when the temperature registered 24 degrees at 8 a. m.

At 6 a. m. toda the glass read 17 degrees. An hour later it had dropped to 16, but at 8 a. m. it was up to 17 again, and then the red continued to creep up the tube.

The coldest places reported in New England were Northfield, Vt., where it was 10 below zero; Greenville, Me., with 6 below, and Barrington, Vt., at exactly zero.

GREENFIELD MAN HELD IN BROOKLINE THEFT

Preston F. Bartlett, 27, of Greenfield, in Brookline court today, pleaded guilty to the larceny of jewelry, money and a revolver from the home of John E. Crowley, No. 86 Dean road, Brookline. Bartlett was also charged with carrying a gun without a permit and was held in $10,000 until tomorrow.

REVEAL LIQUOR CACHE IN SHIP THEFT PROBE

The inspectors said Miss Hauck knew Max Hossell, one of the defendants. She has been kept in the background, though questioned on several occasions, it was learned today.

Assistant District Attorney Doyle declined to reveal what line of questioning Miss Hauck would undergo.

"BEAVERBROOK" FOUND GUILTY OF LARCENY

New York, Jan. 27 (I.N.S.).—Robert Whitman, alias "Lord Beaverbrook," was found guilty of grand larceny after a jury had deliberated only thirty-five minutes over the fate of the "man of a thousand loves." He will be sentenced February 8.

"Lord Beaverbrook" was charged with taking jewelry belonging to Mrs. Rose Burkan of New York after an ardent courtship.

Since Whitman has prior convictions, he may, under the Baumes law, be sentenced to a maximum of fifteen years.

RAILROADS ORGANIZE MOTOR TRUCK DIVISION

Chicago, Jan. 27 (A.P.).—Acceptance of the motor truck as supplemental to railroad transportation, became a fact today with the perfection of the organization of a motor truck division of the American Railway Association. Officers elected included A. P. Russell, vice-president of the New Haven, as chairman, and T. B. Wilson, Southern Pacific Motor Transport Company, and G. C. Woodruff, assistant freight traffic manager, New York Central as vice-chairman.

WOMAN 'KIDNAP VICTIM' DROPS FROM HUNGER

Exhausted and suffering from lack of food, Mrs. Margaret Mallchi of New Haven today collapsed at the corner of Massachusetts avenue and Hollis street, Cambridge, after a kidnaping experience she recited to police when she regained consciousness at the Cambridge Municipal Hospital.

"I just left my house to get a train for New York, where I was to appear in an assault case," she said, "when several men drew up in an auto and hauled me in.

"They put a pillow case over my head and tied me up. We rode and rode. Where we went I do not know, but finally we came to a house.

"I was handed out of the car and taken to the second floor, where I was a captive until 2 A. M. this morning.

"I then managed to free myself and slide down a rope of blankets from the second floor and have been walking ever since."

The woman could not describe the location of the house or tell any other details of her forced trip.

TALKED IN HIS SLEEP OF THE "OTHER WOMAN"

Providence, Jan. 27 (A. P.).—She first learned of the "other woman" when her husband talked in his sleep, Mrs. Harold L. Stafford testified at a hearing today on her petition for separate support. After hearing her husband mention the name of the woman as he slept, she said, Mrs. Stafford searched his pockets and found further evidence that she had a rival. Stafford has brought a cross petition for absolute divorce.

Reject New Bread Bill

An unfavorable report on the bill of the Master Bakers Association of Boston seeking to set up new standards for the weight of loaves of bread was today made by the legislative committee on mercantile affairs.

Two Killed in Crash

Nonantuck, Ct., Jan. 27 (I.N.S.)—Howard Terrell and Clifford Grant, both of Waterbury, were killed here today when an automobile driven by Willis McClelland of No. 324 Highland avenue crashed into a tree. He was held.

MEXICO SEIZES 300 CATHOLICS IN NEW RAIDS

Mexico City, Jan. 27 (A.P.)—Arrest and detention of Senora Margarita Lascurain De Silva president of the Mexican League of Catholic Women, by secret police was revealed today. She is being held in connection with an investigation into a so-called "Catholic revolution."

Mexico City, Jan. 27 (I.N.S.)—The religious situation in Mexico was brought to the fore again today as a result of the arrest of more than 300 Roman Catholics within the last three days.

All those arrested were charged with spreading seditious propaganda and illegally operating secular schools. None of those arrested is likely to suffer more than the imposition of a fine.

The renewed government attack on Catholicism was climaxed by the wholesale arrest of 225 persons, who were seized when the secret service agents raided the Seminario Conciliar de Mexico, one of the leading Catholic seminaries in the city.

According to the police, many of those arrested had pictures of the recent execution of a priest who was charged with complicity to assassinate former President Alvaro Obregon. The prisoners included a number of priests and seminary teachers.

Those arrested, heeded Into the police headquarters, did not resist, but some of them set up defiant cries of "Long live Christ, our King."

NOT "MISS HARRINGTON" OF NEWTON COURT CASE

The former Edith Harrington, once chosen as "Miss Nantasket" in a beauty contest, wishes it known that she was not the Harrington girl who appeared in Newton Court January 2 and refused to prosecute charges of assault and battery against her husband. The newspapers of the above date gave the name of the young woman as "the former Sylvia Harrington," and Miss Harrington feared some of her friends might mistake the name for hers in view of the fact she had been a beauty prize winner at Nantasket.

BENEFIT SHOW TO BE GIVEN BY USHERS' CLUB

Two moving picture features, ten acts of vaudeville from the Keith Vaudeville Exchange, Pathe News and a comedy are among the numbers on a fine program arranged for an entertainment to be given by the St. Margaret Ushers' Club of Dorchester at the Strand Theatre, Upham's Corner, Monday night.

The proceeds will go to the club fund to provide coal, food and clothing to the needy families in the parish.

Attacker Punished

Providence, Jan. 27 (A.P.)—Dinowska Gardiner, 44, was sentenced to seven years in prison today for an attack on a thirteen-year-old Cranston girl.

SLEUTH SAYS HE 'PADDED' BILLS ON BURNS

Washington, Jan. 27 (A.P.)—William J. McMullin, the government's star witness in the criminal contempt proceedings against Harry F. Sinclair, William J. Burns and their four associates, underwent further examination into his past life today as defence attorneys continued efforts to discredit his testimony.

McMullin, working as a Burns detective, told the government Burns agents employed by Sinclair were shadowing the Fall-Sinclair conspiracy jury. Testifying as a government witness, he has said Burns officials instructed him to make a false affidavit against Norman J. Glascock of the oil jury panel.

Martin W. Littleton, counsel for Sinclair, said an effort would be made to show McMullin faked all of his reports, to get his wages without working, and did it only at his own volition. He said McMullin's charges that Charles G. Ruddy, Burns manager, directed false reports was untrue.

The witness said part of his report of October 21 was untrue, but was composed at Ruddy's suggestion. The false part of this report was that McMullin had followed Glascock on a long automobile ride for which the witness collected $15 for mileage expenses for a trip he never made.

Won't Probe "Robbery" of Woman Oil Plot Witness

Washington, Jan. 27 (I.N.S.)—Peyton Gordon, district attorney, indicated today he would not press an investigation into the alleged attack upon Mrs. William Lantz in her hotel here.

Mrs. Lantz and her husband, a traffic officer in Millbourne, Pa., are witnesses in the Burns-Sinclair contempt trial to attack the character of W. J. McMullin, Burns agent who turned government "spy."

Lantz said his wife had been bound and gagged and beaten and that a letter referring to McMullin had been taken. Police Captain Guy Burlingame interviewed Mrs. Lantz but said "we could find no evidence."

NEWSPAPER CLUB DINES FOLLOWING RE-ELECTION

The forty-third annual meeting and dinner of the Newspaper Club at the Boston Yacht Club, Rowes Wharf, was attended by more than fifty members and guests.

At the business session there was an innovation in the re-election of the entire "administration" for the coming year. The officers are William H. Holden, editor-in-chief; Fred C. Green, managing editor, and George W. Perkins, reporter.

A feature of the program was the distribution of a special edition of the club newspaper, "The Main Street Sentinel," filled with good-natured jibes.

Guests included Chief Justice Wilfred Bolster of the Municipal Court, Chairman Thomas J. Hurley of the Boston Street Commission, Colonel Theodore B. Taylor, U. S. A., of the Army Corps Area, and Captain James D. Condy, commander of the Ancients.

Three new members were initiated. They are Harold F. Wheeler of the Traveler, E. Bigelow Thompson of the Transcript and John W. English of the Boston Evening American.

YOUNG INNES HEADS HUB'S NEWEST REPUBLICAN CLUB

C. J. Innes, assistant corporation counsel of Boston and son of Charles H. Innes, Republican leader, has been selected as president of the Hub's newest political organization, the Young Men's Republican Club of Ward 4. More than 500 young men attended the organization meeting. Mr. Innes was elected without opposition. The club will work in harmony with the older Ward 4 Republican Club. An advisory board from the older club was selected, with Charles H. Innes, Representative Richard Johnson and Stanton Weyman as members. Other officers selected: J. L. Pratt, first vice-president; H. P. Frazer, second vice-president; Perly Chase, secretary, and George Demeter, treasurer.

SMITH COLLEGE SAVANT KILLED BY STREET CAR

Washington, Jan. 27 (A.P.)—John Spencer Bassett of Northampton, Mass., widely known as an educator and writer, was killed here today by a street car. He had written extensively on historical subjects, those pertaining to southern affairs. He was born in Tarboro, N. C., September 10, 1867. Mr. Bassett was for many years a teacher of history at Trinity College, now Duke University, Durham, N. C. Since 1906 he has been professor of history at Smith College, Northampton.

PROF. C. W. ALVORD OF BAY STATE DIES ABROAD

Diano Marina, Italy, Jan. 27 (A.P.)—Professor Clarence W. Alvord, American historian and university professor, is dead here at the age of 59. The body will be transported to Genoa and then to the United States.

Professor Clarence W. Alvord was born at Greenfield, Mass., in 1868. He was an instructor at Illinois Academy in 1891. Later he went to the University of Illinois and the University of Minnesota.

BROKEN PROPELLER HOLDS UP FORD FLIVVER PLANE

Washington, Jan. 27 (I.N.S.)—A broken propeller and bad weather forced Harry Brooks to postpone today a flight to Detroit in a Ford flivver airplane. He may take off tomorrow. The propeller was broken while Brooks was cranking the plane to warm up the engine.

N. H. ROAD BUYS COACH COMPANY FOR $250,000

Hartford, Ct., Jan. 27 (I.N.S.)—Purchase of the Hartford-Springfield Coach Company by the New England Transportation Company was announced at a hearing before the Public Utilities Commission today by W. L. Barnett, attorney for the New England Transportation Company. The purchase price is about $250,000 with the New England to assume all the outstanding obligations of the Hartford-Springfield line.

Barnett said the acquisition of the Hartford-Springfield line by the subsidiary of the New Haven Railroad was done to protect the interstate operations of the New England system. Barnett announced the impending plan to put interstate bus transportation under Federal control as steam railroads now are.

ATTACKER OF GIRL GETS 2½-YEAR SENTENCE

Springfield, Jan. 27 (A.P.).—The maximum of two and a half years was imposed in district court today on Clifton T. Taber, arrested yesterday after he had been captured virtually unaided by Mrs. Thomas Collins, who had been called to the basement of her home by the cries of her nine-year-old daughter. Taber pleaded guilty to simple assault. He has been an inmate of an institution for the mentally deficient.

G.B.S. No Lunacy Shark! Can't Prove He Writes

London, Jan. 27 (A.P.).—The suggestion of Lord Sydenham for a reopening of the dispute revolving around the authorship of Shakespeare's plays in the appointment of a committee of three to undertake examination of evidence connecting the playwright with dramas bearing his name has met with sarcastic rejoinder from George Bernard Shaw.

Shaw, whose name was suggested as being likely material for the proposed committee, said today he would not serve even if the request did reach the formal stage.

"I am not a commissioner in lunacy," he told a representative of the Evening Standard. "For that matter I have never claimed authorship for even the plays I am supposed to have written myself. And what record is there of my having done so?"

Legislator Jailed

Detroit, Mich., Jan. 27.—Sentence of 4 to 15 years in the penitentiary for burglary was imposed on state Representative Chester A. Good, by Judge Ormond F. Hunt.

MRS. GOODWIN DIES AT 81

Mrs. Frances Oxley Goodwin, aged mother of the motor vehicle registrar and one of East Boston's oldest residents, died there today in her 81st year.

Mrs. Goodwin was the daughter of Alexander and Mary Oxley, natives of England, who settled on Prince Edward Island in 1840. She was born there in 1848. In 1850 her family moved to East Boston and Mrs. Goodwin had lived there ever since.

She was married in 1873 to Wilbur Goodwin, a Troy, Vt., builder, who died 10 years ago.

A daughter, Mrs. Waldo Nickerson, and two sons, Frank A. Goodwin and Fred W. Goodwin, survive. It was at the home of the latter at No. 4 West Eagle street that she died. Funeral arrangements have not been completed.

O'RYAN EXALTS HUB AIRPORT

Development of Boston airport by the city was the subject of a conference at City Hall today in which Mayor Nichols, Major-General John F. O'Ryan, president of the Colonial Air Transport, Inc., and Robert H. M. Cowie, president of the American Railway Express Company, participated.

Previous to the meeting O'Ryan and Cowie inspected the field as to its possibilities as a terminus for air transport lines.

Both later voiced the opinion that the Boston airport is one of the most advantageously situated in the country. Considerable expansion is necessary, they believe, in order that commercial use can be made of the field.

Both enjoyed a brief flight over the city in the Boston Airport Corporation's Stinson plane.

Captain Horace N. Heisen conducted the visiting party, which included Major Arthur L. Richmond, chairman of the committee on aviation of the Boston Chamber of Commerce; William S. Smith, Sumner Sewall, C. H. Emery and Bernard Weisman.

AMERICAN CIGAR CO. HEAD IS HONORED BY FRANCE

A. L. Sylvester, president of the American Cigar Company and vice-president of the American Tobacco Company, has been made Chevalier of the Legion of Honor, according to word from Paris. The decoration was conferred by special decree in recognition of Mr. Sylvester's services to France and to the Regie—the French government tobacco monopoly. Mr. Sylvester is internationally recognized as the leading authority in the world on fine tobacco leaf, its growth and methods of handling. In recent years he has spent a great amount of his time in studying French problems pertaining particularly to the selection, growth and handling of tobacco leaf and advising the French government on American methods.

MUSIC TO TEST SANITY, SAYS NEW YORK EXPERT

"It won't be long before scientists will go into prisons, hospitals and institutions for the insane to study the influence of music on the lives of inmates as the basis of a comparable study of music on the lives of the normal and sane," said Peter W. Dykema, professor of music, of Teachers' College, Columbia University, today at the fifth State conference of music supervisors at the Massachusetts School of Art. Professor Dykema spoke on the "Present Tendencies in Evaluating Music."

"Music adds color, tone and impetus to man's life and shadow as life to the people of all other ages," he said. A feature of today's program was the choral singing of pupils from the Boston Public Schools, under direction of John A. O'Shea, supervisor of music.

JEALOUS SUITOR KILLS WOMAN AND HIMSELF

South Norwalk, Ct., Jan. 27 (A.P.).—Manuel Duarte, oyster opener, aged 28, walked into the store of Jennie Faccoolo at No. 43 Raymond street today, drew a .32-calibre revolver, fired five shots, killing the woman, Con sent the remaining bullet to kill himself. Acquaintances said the man had been jealous of the attentions of a Stamford man, named unknown, to the woman, who was about 40 years old.

DANISH CROWN PRINCE TO WED SWEDISH PRINCESS

Copenhagen, Jan. 27 (A.P.).—Another royal wedding is in prospect for Europe. The National Tidende today prints a report that during the so-called Lent season of Stockholm, Sweden, the betrothal of the Danish Crown Prince Frederik and Princess Ingrid, daughter of the Swedish Crown Prince, will be announced. Prince Frederik leaves for Stockholm tonight to attend the approaching festivities there.

FINE DAYS HIT 'L' EARNINGS

The remarkably fine weather of December which allowed for continued use of automobiles is perhaps the explanation why the total receipts of the Boston Elevated last month were $3,236,139.59 as compared with $3,391,597.26 for the corresponding period of 1926.

This slight decrease in receipts is more than offset by a lower cost of service resulting in an excess of receipts over cost of $280,536 as compared with $234,879 in December, 1926. These figures are shown in monthly report of the "E" revealed today. The monthly payroll was lower by nearly $100,000 than during December of a year ago.

$250,000 DRIVE STARTS FOR NEGRO HOSPITAL

The Plymouth Hospital Campaign committee today are in an intensive drive for a $250,000 fund for the purchase of the old Both Israel Hospital, Townsend street, Roxbury, that negro doctors may treat their patients and nurses and interns be trained at the first hospital of its kind in Boston.

Former Mayor Andrew J. Peters, honorary chairman, Miss Frances G. Curtis, general chairman and ex-Governor Channing H. Cox have issued an appeal. A subscription of $5,000 has been turned over to the committee by the colored people of Boston. The committee has headquarters at No. 4 Park street to receive contributions.

ACOSTA TO GET OUT, IN AGAIN

Waterbury, Ct., Jan. 27 (A.P.)—Bert Acosta, transatlantic flier and pilot, arrested in Naugatuck Wednesday for violation of the state aviation laws, had prospect of temporary freedom from a five-day jail sentence today when counsel filed an appeal bond of $100 in the Naugatuck borough court. This action, so far as the borough court was concerned, would have given him freedom.

Counsel went to New Haven county jail to get Acosta's release but Sheriff James Geddes said appeal had been made in the superior court and that it should have been taken in the common pleas court of Waterbury.

Counsel came here and filed a bond and a mittimus for Acosta's release was sent by messenger to the jail. The sheriff was notified that the messenger was on his way and Acosta's release was to be given upon the delivery of the document.

At the jail, however, a warrant from Sheriff Harper of Bergen County, New Jersey, was to be served on Acosta in anticipation of service of the warrant as he would return to New Jersey with Deputy Sheriff John A. W. Donaldson. The charge is there is larceny of the plane in which he flew low over Naugatuck and which had been under attachment in New Jersey.

READING "CHALLENGES" FULLER IN LIGHT CASE

Attorney General Arthur K. Reading, questioned today on the report that Governor Fuller had conferred with Sherman L. Whipple with a view to engaging Whipple to represent the State in the Federal courts on the appeal of the Worcester Electric Light Company from a rate ordered by the public utilities commission, said he has not as yet seen Whipple.

"I am the positive power in so far as naming an assistant in this department and no one can exercise that power other than me," the attorney general challenged. He said he was willing to meet Whipple and the Governor to discuss the matter.

LEXINGTON WILL LEAVE HUB FOR NEWPORT FEB. 18

Washington, Jan. 27 (A.P.)—The "shake down" cruise of the new airplane carrier Lexington has been approved by the Navy Department.

She will depart from Boston February 18 for Newport where adjusting and calibrating of the radio and radio compasses will be completed. At Hampton Roads she will embark aircraft personnel and after fueling will depart March 9 for the Canal Zone. She is scheduled to proceed to her base at San Pedro, Cal., April 13.

FIGHT NEW TRIAL FOR 'JERRY'

Judge Wait in Supreme Court took under advisement today an attempt by Middlesex county prosecutors to block securing of a new trial for Jerry Geddium, known as "Jerry the Pole," sentenced to die for murder during the week beginning February 26.

The motion for new trial on an appeal from a decision of denial by Judge David F. Dillon, was made by Geddium's new counsel, John F. Daly.

Assistant District Attorney Frederick A. Crafts argued that the claim of an appeal was not made within the time prescribed by statute and by supreme Court rules.

SENATE VOTES FOR $4 PROBE

Washington, Jan. 27 (A.P.).—The Senate today voted for an investigation of the sinking of the submarine S4 by a joint congressional committee as well as by a Presidential commission.

The resolution now goes back to the House with the question whether the Presidential commission or the joint congressional committee shall make the inquiry into the sinking.

Under an amendment adopted over objections of administration Republicans, the joint committee would be composed of three members of the Senate, to be named by the Vice President, and three members of the House, to be named by the speaker.

INVALID WIFE SAVES LYNN MAN FROM JAIL TERM

The invalid wife of Former City Councillor William E. Solomans of Lynn saved him from a jail sentence today in Lynn court where he was found guilty of larceny of insurance from [illegible] Co., in calling Solomans a suspended sentence of one year in the House of Correction and ordering him to make restitution, Judge Ralph W. Reeve said. "If it were not for the fact that your wife is now in an invalids' home where you are paying $21 a week for her care I would give you a jail sentence, but if I did that the support of your wife would fall on the City of Lynn and I do not feel like imposing that burden on the city."

2 FREEZING MEN SAVED IN DRIFTING BOAT AT SEA

Wildwood, N. J., Jan. 27 (A.P.)—In heavy seas and freezing temperature two men were rescued from their disabled bank skiff ten miles off shore here today just as the fuel was exhausted in the tiny oil stove over which they had huddled for more than fourteen hours. They are J. R. Shrivers, thirty-one, and John Wiest, thirty, of this city. The two had been on a cod fishing trip some distance off shore and were returning with their catch when their craft became disabled.

TO FLY EMPTY PLANE BY RADIO FROM LOS ANGELES

Los Angeles, Cal., Jan. 27 (I.N.S.).—Minus pilot and passenger, an airplane capable of carrying both will be flown from Los Angeles to New York early this Summer, Robert L. Mack, electrical engineer, announced here today.

The phantom ship will controlled, Mack said, entirely by radio operated from a second plane, flying 2,000 feet behind. Tests of the apparatus will be made here shortly.

LOST DOG FOUND IN BOSTON HOME AGAIN

"Do Do" is home again.

"Do Do" is the big Belgian sheepherd dog found by Louise E. Curtis of South Boston. His photograph was published in the Boston Evening American Wednesday, with the result that he was safe at home again yesterday. The dog's owner, John Tychyno of No. 241 Washington street, East Walpole, saw the photograph and a reunion between master and dog followed.

REAL ESTATE MAN IS INJURED BY TROLLEY

Shortly after he left the Hotel Sheraton, Back Bay, where he resides, Henry J. Bowen, 65-year-old widower and South Boston real estate dealer was rushed unconscious to the City Hospital today, injured by a street car at Kenmore station. Doctors reported lacerations and abrasions with a possible concussion of the brain.

Two Stations Abandoned

Abandonment of the Gates Crossing passenger station in Leominster and of the Montwait station in Framingham by the New York, New Haven & Hartford Railroad, was today approved by the Public Utilities Commission.

MILLIS BRIBERY CASE IS GIVEN TO THE JURY

A jury in the Federal Court today took under consideration an indictment charging ex-Chief of Police Arthur Scholl of Millis with conspiracy in accepting bribes to "protect" bootleggers.

Barnet Wenesrat and Harry Purwaits testified they paid him very large sums of from $10 to $15 weekly while they were engaged in the illicit liquor business through 1926 and 1927.

Scholl's defence contended these witnesses had "framed" him because of his prosecution of them for various offences in the Millis court.

ASKS PRAYERS TO HELP PRAYER BOOK REVISION

London, Jan. 27 (A.P.).—An earnest appeal for prayers in connection with the forthcoming session of the National Assembly of the Church of England to discuss the revision of the prayerbook has been issued by the Archbishop of Canterbury, primate of all England. The session will begin February 6.

The archbishop said: "The assembly is entitled to ask for the help of the faithful at a time of special importance in the history of the Church of England."

To Show Who Loves Best; Blonde or Brunette

New York, Jan. 27 (A.P.).—The love of blondes and brunettes is under scientific comparison. Preliminary tests have indicated to Dr. William M. Marston, professor of psychology at Columbia, that brunettes are more responsive, but there will be further experiments.

Broadway show girls of both types are to be shown movie love scenes. Meanwhile their respiration and heart beats will be noted.

STINSON FORCED DOWN BY WIND IN KENTUCKY

Detroit, Jan. 27 (I.N.S.).—As a result of strong head winds, Eddie Stinson, Detroit aviator, attempting a non-stop flight from Tampa, Fla., to Chicago, was forced down at Louisville, Ky., according to word received by his associate, William A. Mara. Stinson will leave Louisville today for Detroit. He is accompanied by Arned S. Kirkby, Chicago broker, a passenger. Stinson recently made the non-stop trip from Chicago to Tampa in eight hours.

Rob Pinkham Plant of Alcohol

Thieves today rolled out ten drums of pure grain alcohol, containing a total of 513 gallons from the Lydia Pinkham plant in Western avenue, Lynn, and escaped with the alcohol, apparently by truck.

A THREE DAYS COUGH IS YOUR DANGER SIGNAL

Persistent coughs and colds lead to serious trouble. You can stop them now with Creomulsion, to emulsified creosote that is pleasant to take. Creomulsion is a new medical discovery with two-fold action; it soothes and heals the inflamed membranes and inhibits germ growth.

Of all known drugs, creosote is recognized by high medical authorities as one of the greatest healing agencies for persistent coughs and colds and other forms of throat troubles. Creomulsion contains, in addition to creosote, other healing elements which soothe and heal the infected membranes and stop the irritation and inflammation, while the creosote goes on to the stomach, is absorbed into the blood, attacks the seat of the trouble and checks the growth of the germs.

Creomulsion is guaranteed satisfactory in the treatment of persistent coughs and colds, bronchial asthma, bronchitis and other forms of respiratory diseases, and is excellent for building up the system after colds or flu. Money refunded if any cough or cold is not relieved after taking according to directions. Ask your druggist. (adv.)

MAYOR'S PHOTO FIRST BY RADIO

New York, Jan. 27 (A.P.)—Mayor James J. Walker has the distinction of being the first person whose photograph was ever broadcast by a radio station over its regular wave length, so that whoever happened to be tuned in could hear it.

Thousands of listeners heard a prolonged squeal, lasting for 90 seconds and punctuated by a swift, regular crackling, as station WEAF of the National Broadcasting Company put the picture of New York's mayor on the air.

The mayor listened intently to the squeal, as he sat in the studio.

"That sound indicates you're going over," said Grover Whalen, chairman of the mayor's committee for the reception of distinguished visitors.

"It sounds as if I had a beard. I must need a shave," the mayor answered.

Aid WLOE to Decide Its Wave Length

THE BOSTON EVENING AMERICAN and the New England Broadcasting Company are desirous of making WLOE one of the most useful and entertaining radio stations in New England. Many letters have been received complimenting the officials of the station on the quality of the broadcasts and the types of programs offered.

Some complaints have been received from listeners who have had difficulty tuning in the new station. If it is necessary to move to a higher wave length to bring the station within reach of the average receiving set, officials of the station will make every effort to do so.

In order to get a majority opinion as to the advisability of asking the Federal Radio Commission for a new wave length assignment, will you please fill out and sign this coupon and mail it to WLOE, Boston Evening American, No. 5 Winthrop square, Boston.

Are you able to tune WLOE satisfactorily? .....

Are you able to tune WLOE at all? .....

Do WLOE programs come in faintly? .....

Are WLOE programs marred by interference when tuned in? .....

Are you of the opinion that a higher wave length would improve receiving conditions for WLOE, and do you recommend petitioning the Federal Radio Commission? .....

TO BROADCAST OPERA STYLES

Radio listeners will receive advance hints on opera styles during tonight's broadcast by Betty Alden society editor of the Boston Evening American from Station WLOE.

Betty Alden will go before the microphone in the American-Advertiser studio at 7 tonight for her regular weekly talk a feature which has aroused considerable interest. Her comments on the activities of the smart set have all the intimacy and authority of her daily articles in the Boston Evening American plus the little side remarks which are bound to inject themselves into a running narrative.

Tonight's talk will be devoted largely to the subject of gowns and wraps which will be in evidence during the coming fortnight of the Chicago Civic Opera Company's performances at the Boston Opera House.

Address Lynn Club

George A. McKinnon, Boston newspaperman, and Captain Charles T. Fesuque, of the State police, were the speakers at the annual ladies night of the Lynn Press Club, which was held in Holmes Hall, Lynn. Horace H. Atherton, register of probate, was the toastmaster.

BRIDGE LESSONS BEGIN FOR BEGINNERS

Popular demand for bridge lessons for beginners, not covered by the regular Tuesday night bridge broadcasts over the Red Network, has resulted in WEEI arranging with Mrs. Charles H. Geissler, prominent Boston bridge exponent of Wilbur C. Whitehead, for a series of afternoon lessons for beginners starting Tuesday at 3:15 P. M.

NORRIS OFF LIST OF COOLIDGE'S GUESTS

Washington, Jan. 27 (I.N.S.)—Considerable comment was caused today over failure of President Coolidge to invite Senator Norris (R) of Nebraska, chairman of the judiciary committee, to the White House dinner to the Supreme Court.

Norris has been a critic of the administration, but it is customary for chairmen of the judiciary committees in Congress to be invited to this function.

FABRE LINER ARRIVES THREE DAYS OVERDUE

Providence, Jan. 27 (A. P.)—Almost three days overdue, the steamer Providence, of the Fabre line, arrived today with 473 passengers from Mediterranean ports, after being battered by 65-mile an hour gales in the mid-Atlantic and a storm that held the vessel 36 hours at Palermo, Italy. Among the passengers was a 6½-year-old boy pianist from Rome, who is to make an American concert tour.

RADIO DIALOG

by

C. WILLIAM RADOS

WHAT will listeners get from the radio programs next week? Only we know what we have planned and since he is one of the world's greatest composers of the third decade he can tell us just what he believes is going to happen in the next few years. Our world is going along like a song. If ever there was let him.

Mme. Amelita Galli Curci, soprano of the Metropolitan Opera Company, sings for WJZ, WGY, WBZ, WBZA listeners tonight starting at 10 p. m. This famous beauteous shares the program with Pablo Casals, world famous cellist. It is said Mme. Curci will over the radio tonight for the first time. Casals and his cello are well used to radio, however.

Rock A'Bye lady will sing us she rocks back and forth from WBZ-WBZA tonight with a milk bottle in one hand and the baby in the other hand. Unless Mrs. Rock A'Bye has a [illegible] radio she will have no time to listen. Her repertoire will include "Mother Dear" and "Children's Prayer," very sweet songs. The Sonneberg Trio string will assist around with the supper and cleaning up the dishes.

Tune in WNAC [illegible] p. m. [illegible] WEEI customers will find a Victor Herbert operetta, "The Prince Domina." This is something about a prime minister's wife and may reveal some choice dirt. To make the broadcast really worth while a "funeral march of a marionette" will be shot from the program is sponsored by the local graveyard.

All this starts at 8 p. m. During the hour the Cavaliers, good male quartet, will produce "Old Refrain," "Three of the Gounods." Lucky boys will doubtless be accompanied to the studio by their wives.

COLLEGE AUTHORITIES WARN STUDENTS NOT TO CROSS CAMPUS ALONE AFTER DARK

Sift Six Theories in Two Weeks' Search

FOURTEEN days' investigation of the disappearance of Frances St. John Smith has developed the following important facts in relation to the only six theories entertained:

1—A runaway. She vanished practically penniless and has not since been authentically reported anywhere.

2—A suicide. Lack of motive strong enough. Dropped from sight during daylight. Search for body so far futile.

3—Victim of kidnapers. No bona fide demand for ransom.

4—Amnesia victim. Without funds, food and lodging such victims are quickly picked up.

5—Victim of accident. Highly improbable. Countryside near college combed without trace by hundreds of searchers.

6—Victim of murder. Today the most probable. Hiding of body would account for her not being seen. Possible motive established by "Jack-the-Hugger" on college campus.

"Marrying Parson" to Resume Work at 79

Providence, Jan. 27 (AP)—When a man has run logs in the woods of Maine, piloted ships in the Great Lakes, sailed the clipper ships and whalers of a hearty era, adventured among Texas cattle rangers, served as chaplain in the Spanish War, sat in the Rhode Island Senate for two terms, married 1,000 couples and preached at almost as many funerals in fifty years of Free Baptist ministry, there is no affection in Rhode Island for a man who will quit at the age of seventy-nine.

So, it was fine, this Rev. Gilbert B. Cutler of Scituate, dean of Baptist ministers in Rhode Island, is to offer two years of retirement from active service by forming at the meeting he will hold thirty-two years ago at the Free Will Baptist Church in Taverton the Fifth Baptist Church founded in America, which was built in 1639.

Mr. Cutler is one of the most widely known pastors in New England and for a long time has borne the name of the "Marrying Parson."

SUSPECT CAPTURED IN FRISBY MYSTERY!

Klaxton Doakes, held by the police without bail, following suspicious actions.

WASHINGTON—Slowly, but surely, the police are closing in upon the missing teeth of Congressman Xylophone Frisby.

Early today a man who gave only the name of Klaxton Doakes wandered into police headquarters, where he loitered aimlessly.

First suspicions were aroused when Doakes tip-toed from one room to another, with a pair of gigantic false teeth in his right hand. Coming upon sleeping policemen, he would bite them on the shins. At first no one paid any particular attention to the mysterious stranger, and he might be at liberty today had he not bit a captain who happened to be in an irascible mood. When captured, Doakes slipped the false teeth into his mouth and quickly swallowed them.

Police are awaiting a report from the X-Ray department.

MEDBURY SAYS---

By John P. Medbury

IN trying to thwart payroll robberies, the police never seem to do anything for the married man who has his salary envelope taken away from him every Saturday night.

THERE have been a lot of jokes about the rolling pin, but it's still the domestic blackjack.

THROW this away, and a lot of wives would no longer be club women.

ONE man says he has found out that matrimony is a game of give and take. What he doesn't give, she takes.

HE wears the trousers, but she has the pick-pocket privilege.

HE says he wishes his firm would pay on Tuesday so that his eye would be well for the week-end.

SHE struck him three times the other evening. Once with a vase and twice with pleasure.

HE'S really guilty of bigamy. She's too many women for one man.

HE'S already spoken to his lawyer. He wants to exchange her for a couple of smaller ones.

SHE thinks nothing of hurling bric-a-brac at him, and there's plenty of power behind the thrown.

HE kept fifty cents out of his pay last week and she had him arrested for embezzlement.

HE'S certainly entitled to a little spending money. What's his is his, if he can run fast enough.

IT'S getting so that he's afraid to go home on Saturday. He usually stops in at a drug-store and tele phones her his salary.

SELF-PRESERVATION is the first law of matrimony.

IT'S better to be a healthy coward than a disabled hero.

THE poor fellow couldn't see more fighting if he joined the Marines and moved to Battle Creek.

HE'S jealous of every man in Sing Sing and Joliet. He envies them their freedom.

HIS wife is all right as wives go, and as wives go, he wishes she'd be going.

THERE are millions of payroll robberies every week, and ninety per cent. of them are inside jobs.

"She's a Septic!"

Many women want to be, deserve to be, and could be for physical fun to their list. Doctors know why. So do nurses. They call such cases septic.

To remedy obnoxious body odors and bad breath, you must recognize your cause. The trouble is deep-seated. Kindly to the colon Sana-compassion makes millions of septics aseptic. There may be a daily movement, but all the waste is not eliminated. The matter that remains poisons the blood and produces intoxication. It taints the breath. Nature is signaling for need of a fuller cleanse.

Calcium works wonders in one's appearance. Too. With the tissue system aseptic cleansed, the complexion clears most marvelously. Even brighter. Teeth whiten. The tongue no longer coated, even on arising. And you never need take another harsh cathartic.

Perhaps you are septic, and don't know it. Try a tiny bit of calcium, and see! It may make all the difference in the world. Lower bacilli-forming cathartics alone. You never need them if you take an occasional calcium tablet.

A five-day test will prove to you very conclusively the system's need for calcium, and the benefit from these little wafers. Your druggist has them for 10c. Or the family size, 60c. Start this test today.

THE SAYINGS OF MRS. SOLOMON

By HELEN ROWLAND

ANY WIFE TO ANY HUSBAND.

What am I, O my Beloved, what am I?

Behold, I am the "angel" with whom thou didst fall in love, the "human being" whom thou hast led to the altar, the "dispensation" that tryeth thy soul, and the "solace" that soothed thy spirit.

Lo, I am the steering-gear that keepeth thee in the straight and narrow way, and the brake which saveth thee from thine own folly and impetuosity.

I am the shock-absorber that maketh pleasant thy way and spareth thee from all the petty annoyances and tribulations of life.

I am the bumper that saveth thy dignity and beareth the blame for all thy mistakes. I am thy "last line of defense" against other women!

I am the cushion whereon thou reatest thine head, the pillow to which thou confidest thy secret troubles and telleth thy triumphs.

I am the human conscience that tormenth thy soul, stayeth thine hand and causeth thee to pause before following after blondes and chorus girls.

I am the peg on which thou hangest the moral reflections; the alibi for thy forgotten dates, and the inspiration of all thy philosophy.

I am the alarm clock that awakeneth thee in the morning—and the sedative that maketh thee to yawn with drowsiness after dinner.

I am the patent "worrier" that doth awake nights, whilst thou slumberest peacefully, and the buffer wherefrom thou warkest off thy morning grouch and thine evening irritation.

I am the advance agent that heraldeth thy victories and exalteth thy virtues to the housetops, and the walking advertisement of thy success.

I am the chorus that echoeth thy words, the scene-shifter that prepareth thy background, and the applause that greeth thine entrance and followeth thine exits.

Yea, verily, I am at once the Eve, the apple, the serpent and the flaming sword in thy Garden of Eden!

I am thy Ego!

SMART SAYINGS OF CLEVER CHILDREN

The Boston Evening American will pay $1 for published smart sayings. Address "Smart Sayings," Boston Evening American.

Teacher—"Willie, if your daddy gave your mother ten dollars Saturday and then gave her twenty dollars Monday what would she have?"

Willie—"Please teacher she'd have a fit." MRS. W. J. LAIRD, 1 Front street, Lowell.

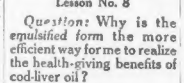
THE BEST JOKE I EVER HEARD

The Boston Evening American will pay $1 for "Best Joke" published. Address "Best Joke," Boston Evening American.

Johnny: "How much does radium cost?"

Druggist: "About $27,000 an ounce".

Johnny: "Could you give me a nickel's worth?" JOSEPH SHERMAN, 46 Garden street, Boston.



Lesson No. 8

Question: Why is the emulsified form the more efficient way for me to realize the health-giving benefits of cod-liver oil?

Answer: Because when cod-liver oil is emulsified it is more perfectly absorbed, and does not disagree with digestion. Take

SCOTT'S EMULSION

All sorts of headaches usually yield to a Bayer Aspirin tablet. But don't let the acquaintance end there! Aspirin offers the same welcome relief from neuritis and neuralgia, and even rheumatic pains. To break up a cold, or end a toothache; for children, as well as adults, nothing seems quite so effective—and so harmless—as Aspirin. But the box must say Bayer; the name must be on every tablet, too, to be genuine Bayer Aspirin. Remember that! All druggists, with proven directions.

Physicians prescribe Bayer Aspirin; it does NOT affect the heart

Aspirin is the trade mark of Bayer Manufacture of Monoaceticacidester of Salicylicacid

DUQUESNE LIGHT COMPANY
NOTICE OF REDEMPTION
To the Holders of the First Preferred Stock, 7% Cumulative, Series A, of Duquesne Light Company.

NOTICE is hereby given that pursuant to resolutions duly adopted by the Board of Directors of the Duquesne Light Company and in accordance with the provisions of the First Preferred Stock, 7% Cumulative, Series A, of said Duquesne Light Company, the Duquesne Light Company has elected to redeem and will redeem on March 15, 1928, all of such First Preferred Stock, 7% Cumulative, Series A, then outstanding at the redemption price per value thereof and dividends accrued thereon to said date of redemption of the previous dividend to March 15, 1928.

The stock called for redemption shall cease to be entitled to dividends from March 15, 1928, and shall cease to give any rights or privileges except the right to receive thereof except to receive the proceeds due from such redemption unless the Company shall fail to redeem such stock in accordance with this notice of redemption.

The payment due on March 15, 1928, will be made to holders of record at the close of business March 14, 1928, and will be made only upon surrender of certificates for said stock properly endorsed to the Company on or after March 15, 1928, at the principal office of The Chase National Bank of the City of New York, 57 Broadway, New York City, and upon such surrender payment for said stock will be made at the price aforesaid.

By order of the Board of Directors,
Duquesne Light Company, by W. H. Carson, Secretary, 435 Sixth Avenue, Pittsburgh, Pa.
Dated January 6, 1928.

SOLDIERS HIT BY HOUSING SHORTAGE

New York, Jan. 27.—The Citizens Committee on Army Housing, headed by Congressman Loring M. Black Jr., inspecting Fort Totten, coast artillery post near Whitestone, L. I., found this post to be not so old as some of the other army posts located within the New York metropolitan area. Most of the buildings are permanent brick structures, the oldest dating not much further back than 1894.

Despite the permanent nature of the buildings the committee found nevertheless, that many of them are in a deplorable state of repair. As a consequence the committee found much to criticise with respect to lack of upkeep, due to insufficient funds for repairs and maintenance.

These findings further substantiate charges which Major General Charles P. Summerall made last October in an address in San Diego Cal., to the effect that housing conditions in the United States Army were notoriously bad.

The investigators were received by Brigadier-General Stuart Heintzelman, post commander, who recently returned from Hawaii. An inspection trip through the buildings and grounds under escort of Captain G. C. McFarland, Lieutenant J. H. Smith, post adjutant and assistant, and Captain Christian, General Heintzelman's aide was made. The strength of the garrison is approximately 700 men all of the coast artillery, including a medical, signal and other detachments.

The committee found the chief difficulty at Fort Totten to be housing shortage. As a result of this condition, and due to the existence of permanent work barracks for the enlisted men, the officers and non-commissioned officers fare relatively the worst, reversing the usual condition.

Of the forty officers at the post, only 15 per cent, are provided with quarters within the reservation, and these live in "cut up" houses made into first and second floor apartments. Formerly each of these was occupied by one officer and his family. Most of this "converting" work has been done with indifferent labor. Much of the work bears the stamp of having been done by amateur building contractors.

To make room, the bachelor officers' building has been converted into quarters for married officers. The bachelors have been relegated to the servants' quarters in the dingy attic rooms, with low windows and sloping ceilings. Of the fifty odd non-commissioned officers and servant officers at the post, entitled to quarters, only half that number are housed, and they are compelled to live in quarters that are regarded as temporary "makeshifts."

A feature of Fort Totten is an unusually large, light and airy brick barracks structure which the committee found it to be greatly in need of repairs. Much new plumbing kitchen equipment, cooking ranges and hot-water tanks would be required, the committee found, to place the building in a proper condition.

One of the squad rooms had a big break in the ceiling where the plaster had scaped down from a leaking roof. In the kitchen worn out, broken ranges interfere with the efficiency of the cooks. There was only one small water boiler for 130 men of the company. The heating system of the buildings was original ly designed for the use of anthracite coal. Now, the committee was told, the post gets "only soft dirt and coal dust." The ash and flues are de cing from rusty pipes and outworn, leaky plumbing.

The committee found the outside woodwork, stairs and porches on nearly all the brick buildings in a decaying and crumbling condition. The gutters are full of holes and several of the buildings need new roofs to keep out the rain and cold.

Tomorrow's article will review conditions at Fort Slocum.

HAVANA ENVOYS CALL LINDY TO GIVE ADVICE

Havana, Jan. 27. — Charles A Lindbergh, America's flying ambassador of good will to the people of the Western world, will be asked to give the Sixth Pan-American Conference the benefit of his views on the promotion of international aviation.

As the delegates wrestled with the problem of international American commercial flying, it became apparent that Colonel Lindbergh's practical experience will enable him to give the most valuable advice to those whose knowledge comes largely from hearsay and academic studies.

Of course no one thinks of assigning the "Lone Eagle" to any official post in the conference. But there is the growing realization that in his personal conversations with the delegates he can give them some practical pointers.

READY TO GREET LINDY.

Lindbergh is already the center of popular interest in Havana. His picture is everywhere. In many places, it has been substituted for the picture of President Coolidge. Preparations of welcome to "The Knight of the Air" are to be seen everywhere throughout the city.

Plans for Colonel Lindbergh's reception in Havana were discussed by Colonel Noble H. Judah, American Ambassador to Cuba, and Dr. Orestes Ferrara, Cuban Ambassador at Washington, in charge of arrangements.

In order to simplify matters, it is planned to have the general welcome at the airdrome, twelve miles from the city and the official reception by President Machado will take place at the palace. Delegates to the conference, members of the diplomatic corps, and Cuban officials will be at the palace.

Practical organization of the Pan-American Union as one of the principal agencies of Pan-Americanism occupied the centre of the stage today.

Drafting of the agreement by which all the New World republics will maintain the Union was begun by the first commission.

BORROWS HUGHES' IDEAS.

The central idea was contained in the memorandum proposed by Dr. Gustavo Guerrero, foreign minister and chief of the delegation from Salvador. Dr. Guerrero admitted his assemble as a statement of principles was borrowed from the address a week ago of former Secretary of State Hughes.

HARTLEY GLAD HE'S 'DONE WITH SEA FOREVER'

Washington, Jan. 27 (A.P.) —Herbert Hartley, who spent thirty-five years of his life on ships, is "going down South in the land of cotton and forget all about the sea."

Hartley, here with his wife to arrange details incident to his retirement as commander of the giant liner Leviathan, said today he would made his home in Alabama, although he has arranged to enter business in Atlanta as sales representative of the Hupp motor car.

"I'm through with the sea forever," Hartley declared with a smile when he betrayed his desire to get back to the life of a land lubber, which he has not known since he was eighteen.

"Thirty-five years on the ocean is enough for any man. I've had grown tired of following it. I was born in New York, but I turned Southerner when I married Mrs. Hartley three years ago. Her home is in Opelika, Ala., and that is going to be my home from now on.

GLAD TO BE ON LAND.

"I've thought about settling down ever since I left my home at the age of eighteen to become a sailor, and now I'm going to answer the call."

Mrs. Hartley is "tickled to death" over the decision of her husband, who said he had been thinking about resigning for also a eight months.

Rumors that his retirement was the result of a disagreement with the Shipping Board were denied by the veteran sea captain.

"Why, they're fixing up an engrossed testimonial to express their regret," he declared, "They didn't want me to go, and I suspect I could get a job with them again if I ever wanted to, but I don't want to. This resignation will become effective February 1."

CROSSED SEA 850 TIMES.

Asked to detail the high lights of his sea career, the former commodore replied:

"Well, I've crossed the sea 850 times and I've carried 200,000 passengers across in my five years as master of the Leviathan. When I took her out on her trial trip I put her through her paces exactly twenty-five hours, or an average of 27.4 knots. That's the fastest she's ever gone.

"The first ship I ever took across the Atlantic was a sailing vessel, and it took forty-five days to make the trip."

DESMOND FITZGERALD MAY BE ENVOY TO U. S.

Dublin, Irish Free State, Jan. 27 (A.P.)—The Irish Independent says there are persistent rumors that Desmond Fitzgerald, Minister of Defence, will be appointed either Minister to Washington or Irish Commissioner at London. Fitzgerald, who is at present touring the United States with President Cosgrave, is reported to intend to resign from the Dail Eireann soon after his return here with the Cosgrave party.

And Now the Girls Are Wearing Gloves on Their Knees!

London, Jan. 27 (I.N.S.)—Gloves for the knees are the latest vagary of women's fashions.

Gold kid "knee gloves" embroidered with bright colored silks and beads, stretching seven inches below the knee, have become generally popular.

For evening wear, "knee gloves" of lisle silk are available, or even more bizarre are those made of feathers matching the fan and bag of the wearer.

every instrument in a 15-piece orchestra. And he does it four times a day. His is Ken Whitmer, a native of Omaha, by birth, although he's been playing with Paul Whiteman's band as the leading hot fiddler for the past eight months. Not so long ago Mr. Whitmer was a member of the Omaha Symphony, and also served on the faculty of the Omaha Conservatory of Music.

A little over a year ago he signed a contract for a tour of the vaudeville houses over the Orpheum and has proved a hit in every city in which he has appeared. Almost from the day that he was able to walk Mr. Whitmer has displayed a marked aptitude as a musician.

THE BOSTON AMERICAN'S PLATFORM FOR BOSTON AND NEW ENGLAND

For BOSTON: 1—Clean streets.
2—Solution of traffic and parking problems.
3—Better pay for honest public service.
4—An airport SECOND TO NONE.
5—Erection of a MUNICIPAL AUDITORIUM to compare with any in the land, in order that Boston, properly supplied with first-class hotels, may be the premier convention city of the U. S. A.

For NEW ENGLAND: 1—Weld the six States into a unit through the activities of the New England Council, thus creating a community consciousness.
2—Promote intercourse with Central and South America, encouraging New Englanders to "turn to the sea" again.
3—Keeping everlastingly at the job of telling the rest of the country all about our unique advantages as Summer and Winter Playground of the Nation.
4—Foster the prosperity of our industries through (1) greater efficiency in production and (2) the use of modern methods in merchandising.
5—Promote in every way such natural resources as forests, water powers and fisheries.
6—Assist New England agriculture to better marketing methods.

Boston, "Cleanest" City

IF Not "Spotless Town"

Professor Samuel E. Dibble's finding, that so far as dust particles in the air are concerned Boston is the cleanest big city in America, may surprise Congressman Gallivan, General Logan, Dr. L. Vernon Briggs and some other civic leaders.

The Carnegie Institute scientist calls St. Louis the "dirtiest" of the large cities and next in order ranks Cincinnati, with 16,070 dust particles per cubic foot; his own Pittsburgh, with 16,100; Detroit, 15,300, and Chicago, 14,000.

Boston, far down the list, is credited with "only" 5,300.

Perhaps the South Boston Congressman and his friends will say that this is too many by several hundred. They went to Beacon Hill less than a year ago to ask for an investigation of the "smoke, soot and cinder nuisance" hereabout, General Logan telling the legislative Committee on Public Health how children came home from a visit to Marine Park "covered with soot."

It was estimated not so long ago that in the destruction of merchandise, the defacement of buildings, the tarnishing of metals and injury to plant and human life, the smoke nuisance costs the United States $500,002,000 a year.

It is good to have Boston advertised as Professor's Dibble's report will advertise us, but what we must continue to aim at is spotlessness. Perfection will not be attained while a single inhabitant is robbed of his full quota of sunlight and clean air.

The Snow-White Derby

Steam-Heated Bostonians Would Do Well to Reflect Upon What Is Going on to the Northward

Steam-heated Bostonians, manifestly over-janitored, would do well to reflect upon what is going on to the northward.

Today and Saturday are the dates of the annual dog sled Derby centering around Poland Spring, Maine. Leonard Sepalla, hero of the famous dog sled dash with anti-toxin for Nome, Alaska, will be a contestant. So will Walter Channing and Mosley Taylor of Boston, Harold Pendergast of North Conway, Roland Lombard of Raymond, Maine, Robert Davis of North Conway, N. H., and Mrs. E. P. Ricker, Jr., the latter the only woman entrant.

To the northward, many of the roads are well packed with snow. Plans are going on apace for skating, skiing, coasting and tobogganing. When, as, and if Winter comes—and stays—there are big doings scheduled at many points in the New England States. Desk-bound and house-bound Bostonians might ponder the appended schedule of Winter sports in the New England States.

Perhaps they will be able to slip away for a few days and enjoy life in the open, followed by an evening around the blazing logs in the fireplace. Pick any one of these and you can't be far from wrong:

GLASS HOUSES WILL IMPROVE HEALTH

By DR. FRANK CRANE

THE press the other day reported that the City of Berlin will build a great public schoolhouse made almost entirely of glass.

Although its frame is stiffened by steel and concrete the walls will be of thick plate glass.

This is an interesting and significant fact.

Primeval man lived in dark caves. A little later a few men huddled together in lightless huts. Windows were rare in the middle ages.

As civilization has advanced houses have become lighter by the use of glass. Even workshops grow lighter.

When John H. Patterson built his factories at Dayton, Ohio, almost entirely of glass windows, he was ridiculed by the architects who said it could not be done. He did it, however, and those factories are stable and useful and the health of the operatives has been conserved.

A house is necessary to shield us from the inclemency of the weather and to preserve artificial heat. But this should not deprive us of the advantages of sunshine.

Sun is the greatest doctor in the world. Many diseases heretofore held incurable are at least remediable by sunshine. A method of artificial light closely allied to sunlight and capable of being concentrated upon a narrow area is used in some diseases.

There is no doubt that our health would be improved and indirectly our spirits would be helped were there more sunshine constantly in our lives, and the effort to give school children surroundings that are light is commendable.

Of course outdoors is the place to live and outdoor people are the sanest, but in many parts of the country outdoor life is impracticable on account of the weather. It is so in the regions where are situated the greatest cities, such as London, New York and Berlin, but by making the houses largely of glass this deprivation of sunshine may be somewhat ameliorated.

If we cannot live outdoors all year around, at least we can live in houses that admit the sunlight.

BOSTON DAY BY DAY

AT the opening of the Y. M. C. A. drive this week a New York orchestra was dressing off stage. As the musicians proceeded they missed the wide, red lip sash which is part of their costume. Frank W. Bugler, Boston grocery man and advertising man whose hobby is concerts, was their Boston guide. Breathlessly or some such way they described the case. Mr. Buxton would be equal to the emergency. Soon he rushed back from a store with a dollar's worth of red ribbon which he soon draped around the hips of the musicians. Thus attired they played as per schedule.

Residents of Newton Highlands and Brookline will remember Mrs. Frederick P. Beach, who was Miss Ruth Ward, now teaching at Fukien Christian College, Foochow, China. Mrs. Beach was born in Brookline, lived many years in Newton Highlands and graduated from Mt. Holyoke. She and Professor Beach are noted as Eastern educators and authorities in psychology. In a photograph she sends Mrs. Beach is seen with the University Glee Club.

"Phillips," a rare china doll of 1870, named after Phillips Brooks, gave great aid in a recent hospital drive for the endowment of a Phillips Brooks bed. "Phillips" belonged to Mrs. Edward W. Hutchins, who discovered the doll in her Beacon street home and remembered she had played with it when a girl. Recognizing its value to some collector, Mrs. Hutchins donated it to be sold. Miss Edith H. Sears furnished a complete outfit of doll's clothing of 1870 fashion.

LISTEN, WORLD!

By ELSIE ROBINSON

MINNIE'S feelings are hurt again.

Or rather, Minnie's feelings are still hurt.

Has some frightful sorrow darkened Minnie's life? Is she poor, persecuted, sick? No indeed. She is a perfectly husky young American woman of twenty-nine. She has always had good health, affectionate relatives, a nice home and a record appetite. Then why the tragedy?

THE SIMPLE TRUTH IS THAT GETTING-HER-FEELINGS-HURT IS MINNIE'S WAY OF MAKING HERSELF IMPORTANT. SHE WOULDN'T SWAP HER SENSITIVENESS FOR A SEAT IN CONGRESS.

We're just beginning to discover the truth about sensitiveness. Hitherto Sensitive People have been regarded as Human Orchids, entitled to the most tender consideration because of their delicate organisms. We now know that this touchiness has no such lovely origin. IT IS ACTUALLY A DETESTABLE VARIETY OF CONCEIT AND SHOULD BE TREATED AS SUCH.

The Minnies of the world, and they are legion, care for just one person—and that's Minnie—and they long to centre the world's attention on that beloved object. Now, it is very difficult to monopolize the world's attention. It can, of course, be done by outstanding achievement. If you're brave enough, or bright enough, or good enough you can hog the spotlight—but it takes a lot of hard work. And Minnies aren't fond of hard work.

But there's another way. A Minnie way. You can hog it by being a nuisance.

A SORE TOE GETS AS MUCH CONSIDERATION AS A GREAT SOUL—USUALLY MORE.

So Minnie becomes a human Sore Toe. And every time she's stepped on, the world hears about it. Which is just what Minnie wants. She wants to be heard and considered and consoled. So she gets stepped on at the slightest pretext.

The psychologists have wise names for the Minnies. They call them neurotics and neurasthenics and you can read long articles on how to recognize and minister to them. But I can give you a shorter name and snappier treatment. THEY'RE DOGGONED PESTS. GIVE 'EM THE AIR!

Give Minnie the treatment which you mete out to all your ordinary friends, the same friendly attention, the same good-natured indifference, the same chaffing contradiction. Give her this and nothing more. If she weeps hand her a blotter. Or show her this.

Will she gradually snap out of it and be a human?

She will.

How do I know?

I'VE BEEN A MINNIE.

Jumping Into Space

while the pilot of the machine watches the daring leap.

This sort of thing is done all over the world all the time. In China, Japan, Russia, France, all over the United States, in all European countries, men every day practice, as a mere matter of course, the art of stepping into space.

DRAGGED BY THE PARACHUTE

You see the parachute strapped on to a man's back. He is trained, and warned not to pull the string releasing the parachute too soon. He must count TEN as he falls through the air and then pull the string, releasing the parachute, when he has gained sufficient momentum to inflate it thoroughly.

Training parachute jumpers is a special department of the flying art.

The jumper must have nerve to step into empty air, several thousand feet up, and then to count ten slowly before you pull the string that is to open the parachute and save you.

One important thing, as you are landing, is to handle the cords of the parachute so that you strike the earth "facing down the wind," your back to it. Thus when you strike the earth, you fall on your hands and knees as you land and let go of the parachute. It is safer than falling backward on your head, which you would do if you descended with your face to the wind.

The jumper is taught, just before touching the ground, to pull up his legs and bend his arms so as to land with all possible "spring" and elasticity.

He is also taught, as he strikes the ground, to pull the cord, that will let air out of the parachute on the downward side, to prevent his being dragged on his face.

As the flying machine becomes more popular, all of us, not too old, will want to understand parachute jumping. The whole younger generation will learn, then gradually such jumping will become unnecessary, except for air fighters, just as it is unnecessary now to jump from a train going at speed. The young brakeman can do it, and enjoys doing it, jumping off and on at twenty-five miles an hour.

The little picture at the bottom shows how a man can be dragged by a parachute if he lands carelessly. Under the best of conditions, the shock of landing from a well-managed parachute is about the same shock as though you had jumped off a brick wall six feet high and landed on your feet, WITHOUT ANY PARACHUTE.
